Her funeral will be Wednesday, July 17, 2002 at 10 a.m. at the Columbia Congregational United Church of Christ with the Rev. Sheila Apland-Ottenbacher officiating. Burial of cremains will take place at a later date at Lakeview Cemetery, Columbia. Arrangements are being handled by Miller-Huebl Funeral Home, Aberdeen.

Alice Selina Johnson was born December 30, 1922 to Charlie and Annie (Lien) Johnson on a farm near Columbia, SD. She was baptized and confirmed in Aurland Lutheran Church near Frederick. She attended grade school at rural Columbia, graduating in 1937. She then attended high school in Barnard and Columbia, graduating with the Class of 1941. She worked for the Columbia State Bank for a number of years.

She married Donald William Elliott on September 22, 1946 at the Aurland Lutheran Church near Frederick, SD. They worked at Elliott's Grocery from 1953 until 1970, at which time the store closed. Donald died on March 25, 1987 and Alice continued to make Columbia her home until the time of her death.

She was a member of the Columbia Congregational United Church of Christ, the Women's Fellowship Group and the Senior Citizens.

Survivors include one daughter: Diane (Brian) Smith of St. Cloud, MN; one brother, Dale Johnson of Madison, SD and two granddaughters.

Her husband, parents and four brothers preceded her in death.

Casket bearers will be her relatives.
